

QOSMEDIX

Company Description

Qosmedix is an ISO 9001, ISO 14001 certified global supplier to the cosmetic, skin care, spa and salon industries. Founded in 1987 on the concept of maintaining hygienic practices during beauty consultations, the company has since expanded its line to provide an array of high quality products that offer both convenience and value to its customers. The vast inventory includes disposable applicators, professional makeup brushes, specialty swabs, sponges, spa wear, jars, bottles and much more. Qosmedix is a division of Qosina, a leading international supplier of components to the medical and pharmaceutical industries.
